To celebrate the BIG DRAW 2017 with the theme of living lines, why not come to your local library and... "Put yourself in the Picture" have you ever wanted to join the Wild Things or go on a Bear Hunt for real? Well now you can put yourself into one of these famous stories. At a fantastical 'BIG DRAW' workshop at either Tooting or Balham Libraries in the October half term.

Workshops take place at Balham Library on Monday 23rd October at 2-4pm and at Tooting Library on Thursday 26th October 2-4pm

For children 7 years and above.

Booking is essential for these workshops. Please contact Balham library on 0208 673 1129 or Tooting Library on 0208 767 0543 to book your place.

NB: parents may leave children at the Library but only for the duration of the workshop.

DANCING THROUGH TIME

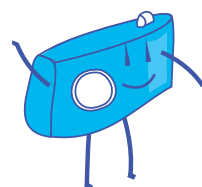

A dance workshop for grandparents and children to share their moves, learn from each other and have fun together.

Saturday 4th November 2-4pm
